

Taught by Meredith Charles

Using storytelling, pantomime, improvisation and theatre games, students will work on creative expression, tone, problem-solving, presentation, and collaborative skills.

*This semester-long class is designed to challenge and inspire students to stretch their brains and limits.
A great class for both the seasoned performer and those new to the world of theatre who are looking to try it out.
Wednesdays, 5:15 to 6:15p. $320.*
